

Job Description: English Camp Assistant (Part-Time, Summer)

About Simson English

Simson English Academy exists to produce confident English speakers by creating a passionate community of learners dedicated to seeing each other thrive.

We are a small English center and our goal is to create an environment where our students thrive as they learn to communicate clearly and effectively. Our teachers are native English speakers from the US and Canada, and we create an immersive environment, only using English in the classroom.

About the Role

We are looking for enthusiastic university students majoring in English to join our international summer camp team. You will work alongside native English-speaking teachers from the USA, helping create a fun, active, and immersive English environment for children ages 6–12.

- 6-week program
 - 1 week: Training & Preparation (June 8-12)
 - 4 weeks: Summer Camp (morning sessions) (June 15-July 10)
 - 1 week: Wrap-up & Reflection (July 13-17)
- Working hours: 7:30am–2:30pm Monday to Friday (students will go home by 12, followed by a lunch break, then clean up and prep for the next day).

Responsibilities

- Assist American teachers in leading games, activities, and lessons
- Encourage campers to speak and use English confidently
- Help manage small groups of students during activities
- Support classroom setup and materials preparation
- Participate actively in songs, games, and team challenges
- Ensure a safe, positive, and energetic environment for all students

Benefits

- Daily English-speaking practice with native speakers
- Cross-cultural experience working with an American team
- Hands-on classroom and leadership experience
- New friendships and professional connections
- Weekly stipend (details provided upon application)

Requirements

- University student (preferably majoring in English, Education, or related field)
- Intermediate to advanced English level
- Friendly, energetic, creative, positive, and responsible
- Enjoy working with children (experience working with children preferred)

Please send your CV and a short introduction (in English) about yourself and why you would be a great fit for this program to hello@simsonenglish.com.
